

The E. Ann Nalley Western Region Award for Volunteer Service to the American Chemical Society Nomination Form

Purpose: To recognize the volunteer efforts of individuals who have served the American Chemical Society, contributing significantly to the goals and objectives of the Society through their Regional Activities.

Nature and Establishment: This award was instituted in 2006 by ACS President E. Ann Nalley as part of her presidential initiative to recognize ACS volunteerism. It was Dr. Nalley's wish that the award continues in perpetuity at each regional meeting. The award consists of a plaque honoring the recipient with an imbedded medallion commemorating Dr. Nalley.

Rules of Eligibility: A nominee must be a member of the American Chemical Society residing in a local section within the region and will have made significant contributions to their Region of the American Chemical Society. The volunteerism to be recognized may include a variety of activities, including but not limited to the initiation or sponsorship of a singular endeavor or exemplary leadership in the region. Past and present members of the ACS Board of Directors and staff are ineligible for this award.

Deadline: August 1, 2022

Directions: Any individual may nominate or support only one nominee for this award in any given year. Members of the award selection committee may not nominate or support a candidate. Please complete all fields.

Submittal process: A complete nomination packet consists of this form (including Nominator's recommendation) and up to two additional letters of support. Submit all documents to Dr. Jun Yong Kang at junyong.kang@unlv.edu by August 1, 2022

The award will be presented at the 2022 ACS Western Regional Meeting (WRM 2022), which will be held at Flamingo Hotel & Casino's Convention Center, Las Vegas, Nevada on October 19 - 22, 2022. The ACS Western Region Award consists of an ACS plaque and registration to WRM 2022.
